

Foreign Advertisements.

MAIN & WINCHESTER,
HARNESS, SADDLES, BRIDLES, WHIPS,
COLLARS, SADDLERY WARE, &c.,
Nos. 211 and 213 Battery St., San Francisco

SEVERANCE, CLARK & CO.,
Commission Merchants
And Shipping Agents.
405 Front Street, corner of Clay St., San Francisco.

WILLIAMS, BLANCHARD & CO.,
Shipping & Commission Merchants,
No. 218 California Street,
San Francisco.

JANION, RHODES & CO.,
Commission Merchants,
Victoria, Vancouver's Island.

LEA & PERRINS'
Worcestershire Sauce!
The Only Good Sauce!

CAUTION AGAINST FRAUD!
THE SUCCESS OF THIS MOST DELICIOUS AND UNRIVALLED CONDIMENT HAVING CAUSED CERTAIN UNDISCERNING AND UNLAWFUL IMITATIONS TO BE OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC, THE LEA & PERRINS COMPANY HEREBY INFORMS THAT THE ONLY WAY TO OBTAIN THE GENUINE IS TO PURCHASE THE SAUCE IN ITS ORIGINAL BOTTLES, AND TO BEWARE OF ANY OTHER IMITATIONS.

ASK FOR LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE, and you will get the genuine, and not the cheap imitations.

ASK FOR LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE AND SEE NAME ON WRAPPER, LABEL, BOTTLE, AND STOPPER.

J. C. MERRILL & Co.,
Commission Merchants

Auctioneers,
204 and 206 California Street,
SAN FRANCISCO.

McCACKEN, MERRILL & Co.,
FORWARDING AND
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
Portland, Oregon.

HAVING BEEN ENGAGED IN OUR PRESENT
business for upwards of seven years, and being located in a fine private building, we are prepared to receive and dispose of Island staples, such as Sugar, Rice, Syrup, Salt, Coffee, &c., to advantage. Consignments especially solicited for the Oregon market, to which personal attention will be paid,
and upon which our facilities will be made when required.

FOR SALE
—BY—
J. T. WATERHOUSE.

250 Barrels
FRESH
Columbia River Salmon!
500 COILS
GENUINE MANILA ROPE
ASSORTED
5, 11 and 13 inch—a long length for little weight.
A LARGE VARIETY OF DEMIJONS!
WITH A LOT OF
New English Prints
—AND—
Other Goods Just Received!
Per Comet,
FROM ENGLAND, VIA SAN FRANCISCO,
—BY—
JOHN THOMAS WATERHOUSE
721 2nd

A Book which should be in Every Library
ANDREWS' HAWAIIAN DICTIONARY
CONTAINING ABOUT 20,000 HAWAIIAN Words, with English significations, and —ALSO—
An English-Hawaiian Vocabulary, and Chronological
Table of Historical Events.
By LORIN ANDREWS.
PRICE: (Bound in Sheep) $6.00
(Bound in Half Morocco) $6.00
For Sale by
H. M. WHITNEY.

This Valuable Work can be obtained in London of Messrs. TRUBNER & Co., Paternoster Row.
And also in New York of Messrs. BARNES & Co., John St.

SOLE AND SADDLE LEATHER,
Tanned Goat and Sheep Skins,
CONSTANTLY ON HAND AND FOR SALE,
By
WALMA FANNERY—C. NOTLEY.
722 1/2

Foreign Miscellany.

Three young Chinese men, it is said, are soon to enter Harvard University.
Chicago has been visited by five hundred and eighty fires since April 1st, 1869.
Commander Edwards, who surveyed a route across the Isthmus of Darien for a ship canal in 1854, writes to the London Standard, exulting in the resumption of the project, and expresses his belief in its perfect feasibility.

THE LARGEST ORGAN IN THE WORLD.
The largest organ in the world will be the organ now building by Willis for the Hall of Arts and Sciences, South Kensington. It will have 111 sounding stops, independent of 14 couplers.

The long agony about the distribution of the $100,000 appropriated for the capture of Jefferson Davis is at last over. The third auditor of the treasury has made out a report, which has been approved, and the money will be divided among 240 claimants.

By the latest count, the House of Lords consists of 474 members—of whom four are princes of the blood, three archbishops, 27 bishops, 32 marquises, 167 earls, 36 viscounts, 27 barons, and 177 baronets. The new representative peer for Ireland remains to be elected. The total number is ten more than at the opening of the session of 1869.

Sir Henry Rawlinson, the distinguished archaeologist, maintains that Babylon is the site of the Garden of Eden, and that the Babylonian documents now extant give an exact geographical description of the scene of "man's first disobedience."

LONG ROW.—The Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company owns four hundred locomotives and seven thousand cars, which, if placed in a line, would extend a distance of seventy-two miles. This company owns or controls seventeen hundred and sixty-nine miles of railroad.

The whaling ship True Love, now sailing from Hull, Eng., is said to be the oldest vessel afloat, having been built in Philadelphia, in the year 1764. Owing to a peculiarity in her model, she has several times when squeezed by the ice, on occasions when other vessels were destroyed, risen upon the surface and rested there till danger was over. She has made eighty voyages to Arctic seas, and is still sound.

FAIR PLAY.—A divorce case is reported from Detroit, Mich., in which Judge Patchin recently decided that a farm should be divided equally between the severed couple, on the ground that the wife, by her hard work, had done as much as the husband to acquire the property.

SMALL HOUSES WANTED.—There is an unusual demand for small houses in New York. Many find they cannot stand the rents they have been paying, and are looking for smaller and cheaper houses. These renting for $1000, $1200, and $1500 are very scarce, and the demand is far in excess of the supply.

FOR THE SOLDIERS.—By action of Congress the Commutation Fund of $450,000 is to be turned over to the Asylum for Disabled Soldiers. This fund, now in the Treasury, is the money paid as commutation money during the war, and its appropriation to this object is just and right.

A COLORED BOY APPOINTED A CADET AT WEST POINT.—General Butler has appointed a colored boy, named Charles Sumner Wilson, of Salem, Massachusetts, a cadet at the Military Academy at West Point. This is the first case on record of a colored boy being appointed to West Point.

Henry Bessemer, the inventor of the steel process, has discovered and patented a plan by which sea sickness may be avoided in upon which a ship's compasses are suspended, free from the rolling or pitching motion of the vessel. A working model which has been already constructed, shows the simplicity and efficiency of the plan. The suspended chamber in this model is hemispherical in shape, and can be made with a glass roof.

The Chicago Post has a table of cities from which it appears that Chicago, which in 1860 was the eighth city in the Union, is now the third, or will be by the census of this year. It adds: "Another decade and we shall be second; still another, and we shall be first. The prosperity and growth of this great republic, with a hundred million population, and Chicago the greatest of all great cities, it is almost beyond the capacity of the finite mind to comprehend."

The Washington correspondent of the London News was pleased with the treatment accorded to Prince Arthur in Washington. Referring to the reception at Gen. Sherman's, the writer says: "I was particularly struck with the well-bred air displayed by those present in regard to the distinguished visitor. The curiosity to see him was not disguised, there was a keen interest in any of that pushy and scrambling which I am sorry to say, may often be seen in Europe among persons who ought to know a great deal better. Nothing could be nicer than the Prince's carriage and bearing. His manner was courteous, dignified, and graceful."

MR. GLADSTONE THREATENED WITH ASSASSINATION.—We read in the Star of London: "Within the last few days there has been a pressing correspondence between the Belgian and English Governments respecting a somewhat serious matter. Mr. Gladstone recently received a letter in which a person, whose signature was illegible, used violent threats towards him. Amongst other things the writer stated that if Mr. Gladstone persisted in the measures taken with regard to the Rutchuk-Varna Railway Company he might expect to be stabbed or shot. This letter had been written at Ghent and posted in that city. The English Government handed the letter to our ambassador in London, who sent it to our Government for inquiry to be made. That inquiry has taken place in our city, but notwithstanding all the investigations made the writer of the letter has not been secured."

Statistics of the Freedmen's Savings Bank of Washington, just published, give additional evidence that the negro is not only capable of making a living, but of saving something for the future. Four years ago the bank was taking in less than $1,000 a day in deposits; the past year it has averaged over $14,000 a day. In March, 1866, it had $199,282 in its vaults; in March, 1870, $1,657,006. Of the 28 branches at its various branches, 13 are colored men. Its largest branch is at New Orleans, and the next largest at Vicksburg. If there was ever anybody who really thought that the negro could not take care of himself, he must change his mind when reading these statistics. The truth is it is with negroes as with white men, some accumulate property, some make a comfortable living, others are lazy and live from hand to mouth.

SOLE AND SADDLE LEATHER,
Tanned Goat and Sheep Skins,
CONSTANTLY ON HAND AND FOR SALE,
By
WALMA FANNERY—C. NOTLEY.
722 1/2

A Hard Shell Sermon from a Hard Shell Parson.

Of all the rich pieces of absurdity which have ever come under our notice the following is the cap sheet:

My hearers, I shall draw forth the horns of my argument from the following hymn:

This world is all a deceitful show,
To man's illusion given;
To man's illusion given, to man's illusion given,
To man's illusion given, to man's illusion given.

I agree with the tavern keeper, who said, when the circus company stopped without paying him for grub and grub, "this world is all a deceitful show," and I also side with the hungry man, who cried out when a cooked pig's head smokin' in the magic lantern, that it is "a man's illusion given!" My friends! you wrap your feelings round the horns of the world, even as monkeys do their tails around the soundless limbs of old trees. When you get high up, you find your honey bee holler, turns out to be a hornet's nest, and when those little flying devils come swooping down upon their sharp pointed snouts deep into your carcass, you wriggle about like an eel in a fryin pan, your tail is all twisted, or the limb breaks, that you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart, as I feel in my heart, the aspiration runs down you like sea-sands in a washing machine, your body is covered over with the prickly heat of anxiety, and your feet with the soft corners of care and disappointment. And what you have got to get tight, a leather sucker, a nut, and you fall, concluding, upon the broken glass bottles, which are always strewn under the pious lips of pleasure! Oh, the vanity of desire the slippery paths of this air! I feel in my heart,